

Meet the Manufacturer FAQs

Will I receive a CPD certificate for attending?

Yes, you will receive a CPD certificate at the end of the day.

Do I need to reserve a seat?

Yes, please tell us ahead of time if you're planning on attending by emailing admin@sngpublishing.co.uk.

Can I bring colleagues with me?

Yes, you can bring as many colleagues with you as you like. Please email admin@sngpublishing.co.uk with your colleagues' details so that we can register them for the event.

Is there parking?

Yes, there is parking at the venue.

How long does each presentation last?

Each session will last 30 minutes.

Will lunch and refreshments be provided?

Yes, please contact us with any dietary requirements in advance of the day.

Are learners allowed to go to the presentations?

The presentations are specifically tailored to lecturers. However, some presentations may be suitable and of interest to learners, so please ask the presenter on the day or contact us prior to the event to enquire.

Who will be presenting?

Leading manufacturers, trade bodies and key industry leaders. We invite manufacturers to offer practical demonstrations of innovative products to help keep lecturers abreast of exciting new products, innovations, and industry changes.

Can I attend all of the presentations?

Yes, we advise you to attend all the presentations so that we can give you a CPD certificate for attending.

How much does it cost?

The presentations are free for lecturers to attend.

What time do the presentations start?

The presentations usually start at 9am but please check the timetable when you arrive. We suggest that you arrive by 8:30am – this will give you plenty of time to grab a tea or coffee and find your seat.